EVERYTHING READY FOR GREAT K. P. FAIR.

Good Weather Promised For Rest of
Week and Big Crowds Are Expected Daily.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the great Knights of Pythias fair at Stanford Wednesday morning. The showers of Monday and Tuesday have been sufficient to lay the dust at the fair grounds, and with good weather promised for the rest of the week, a delightful old time country fair is anticipated.

Some of the highest class stock in this part of the state will be here for exhibition. Exhibitors began to arrive as early as Saturday. Mack Hughes got in that day from Danville with four head, Walter Briggs, of Shelbyville, came in Sunday with five nice ones, including his great open stallion Antecur, and Nevin Carter's crack three-year-old stallion, Kentucky Gentleman. L. J. Rogers came in Monday night from Danville, and Edgar Doty, of in early Monday from Richmond. Dick Scudder will have a number of his blue ribbon winners here, Carroll Bailey will be here from Crab Orchard with some of his beauties and Walter Walker will have some on hand that will be hard to beat.

The ladies are taking great interest in the floral display and some splendid work will be on exhibition there. The premium of $10 for the best looking lady on the ground at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, is attracting much interest and a bevy of beauties will undoubtedly be on hand to give the judges much trouble.

The Pollard Amusement Company with a full line of attractions came in Monday morning and is ready for the fun to start. The fair opens with the parade of the ponies in town at half past nine o'clock Wednesday morning. The full premium list is given on this page.

BEEES BREAK UP SCHOOL

Swarm at White's School House Causes a Recess.

Peachersville, Aug. 19.—Two nests of humble bees at White's school house, came very near breaking up the school being taught by Mr. Lloyd Martin. The nests were between the weather-boarding and the ceiling and the roosting of the children enraged the bees, causing them to pour out into the school room. The pupils began to try to "shoot" the bees out, but this proved of no avail. Several pupils were stung, the little daughter of T. J. Durham being quite badly stung by a bee which had crawled inside her sleeve. School was dismissed until the larger boys could kill out the vicious insects. This task was finished late in the afternoon and school recommenced as usual next morning.

J. H. Rigby and family visited John Davis and sisters. Miss Frances Moser, of Paint Lick section, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Levi Bell. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Gastmon of Paint Lick, is visiting Thomas Naylor and wife. Master Harvey Cross and sister Miss Hollie, of Cincinnati, are visiting Mother Joe Cross.

McKinney School Starts Off Well

Prof. Horace Caldwell, who has just been elected principal of the Graded School at McKinney, was here Saturday for a short time. He has 90 pupils enrolled in this new graded school, and with Miss Maud Butler as his efficient assistant, he expects a very successful year. Prof. Caldwell comes very highly recommended as an instructor. He is a graduate of Berea College and well qualified to give the pupils of the McKinney school a splendid instruction.

"A Woman's Honor."

"A Woman's Honor" is the name of a four-act drama that will be presented by home talent at the opera house for the benefit of the Knights of Pythias lodge here Thursday night. The play is a most interesting one, with abundant pathos and pathos. Following are the persons who will take part in the play with the characters they will represent: Judge John N. Menefee, Jr., Gen. Mark Lester, Capt. Fisher, Pedro Menefee, Wallace Singleton, Dr. Garcia, Will McCarty, Gilbert Hall, M. D., John Engelman, Robert Glenn, Lester Brown, Gregory Gimes, Russell Brown, Elmerizer, Miss Clara Cooper, Olive Saline, Miss Mary Kendrick, Dunder Maria, Miss Sarah Handley. Some of these who will take part have had experience before the footlights and are worthy of a name higher than amateurs. The show will be worth the money and the fact that Miss Ella May Saunders will manage it guarantees that it will be creditable from beginning to end. Secure your seats today; the crowd promises to be a record-breaker and you may have to stand up if you do not buy early.

Last Call on Low Shoes

If you live until next summer you will have to have Shoes. If we have what you want now in our shelves, it will be a good investment.

The NETTLETON Low Shoes are $5.00, $6.00 and $6.50 the world over--no less. The few pairs left you can get at $4.00.

WALK-OVERS, the most popular of all Shoes--they speak for themselves. The prices are stamped on each bottom, $3.50, $4 and $4.50 the pair. We have about 50 pairs, in all leathers, at $2.50 for the $3.50 ones; $2.75 for the $4 shoes, and $3 for the $4.50 pairs.

They are all new 1912 models. If that isn't a good investment, then don't buy them; if it is, then get you a pair quick.

THE COUNTRY FAIR.

Oh, the city life has its joys no doubt.
Its steam heated mansions and halls;
Its business deals and its automobiles,
Its theaters, suppers and balls;
Its extravagant toys and its messenger boys.
Its buildings wny up in the air;
But where is the street that can ever compete
With the old-fashioned country fair!

Then it's hey ho! And it's won't you go
And see what the country fair can show!
The Plymouth Rocks and the Leghorns, too;
The browsing sheep for all to view;
The golden wheat, the yellow corn;
The ribbons that everywhere adorn;
The monster hogs with the curly tails;
The Jersey cows and the brimming pails;
The luscious pumpkins laid in rows;
And everything that the garden grows;
The mild-eyed horses, patient, kind;
The frolicsome colts that trot behind;
The apples, pears and smelly pears;
With all the fruits the orchard bears;
And bowls of berries, black and red;
And then the band, with martial tread,
In silver braid and scarlet coats,
Playing as if to split their throats--
Ah! what's on earth that can compare
With the genuine old-fashioned country fair!

Oh, a city life has its buncos games,
And its fortunes made while you wait;
Its frenzied finance and its ceaseless dance
Round the Goddess of Gold and Fate;
Its green-goods men and its gamblers' den,
Its gleam and its glitter and glare;
But what does it know of the glorious show
At the old-fashioned country fair!

Then it's hey ho! And won't you go
And see what the country fair can show!
The plates of biscuit, crisp and brown;
The finest rolls from every town;
And every conceivable kind of cake
The same as your mother used to make;
Fruit cake, pound cake, sponge cake, tarts,
Twisted and crimped and shaped in hearts;
Jelly cake, silver cake, gold cake, too;
Cakes of every kind and hue,
Of every name and shape and size,
Flanked by half a thousand pies;
Sauces and catchups by the score;
Jams and preserves from door to door,
With quilts and counterpanes, stitched and sewed,
And tidies and scarfs by the wagon load.
While the judges with solemn, portentous face;
Go strolling on from place to place.
And chat and smile and laugh and roar
At every joke--then eat some more--
Ah! What's on earth that can compare
With the genuine old-fashioned country fair!

Oh, a city life has its trolley cars,
Its policemen clad in blue;
Its electric lights and its dazzling sights;
Its church and its high-priced pew;
But there's many a night when you lie awake,
And think of its trouble and care;
And ah! if you knew what was wisest for you,
You'd go back to the country fair.

Then it's hey ho! And won't you go
And see what the country fair can show!
For the horses race, and they run their best;
And nobody ever wants to rest;
And you eat peanuts and popcorn balls;
And forget that the market rises and falls;
And you bring your lunch and sit in the shade;
And you watch the soldiers on parade;
And you pat your foot to the march of the band;
And you meet your friends, and shake their hand;
And go way up in the big balloon.
Till it looks like you'll drop into heaven soon;
And the sun comes down all gold and red;
And the last good-nights have all been said
And the crowd has dwindled to just a few;
And life seems so happy and sweet to you--
Ah! there's nothing on earth that can compare
With the genuine old-fashioned country fair.

A Kidney Remedy Advertisement

Brought Great Happiness

I take pleasure in stating that I have used Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root that I was greatly benefited by the same and have used it in my family. I had a son, when quite young he suffered from bladder or kidney affliction. I called in my physician, he attended him but did him no good. Almost by accident I noticed an advertisement about the curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I procured a bottle and gave it to him according to directions. It cured him of what we thought was almost impossible and the same with others of my family. I have such strong faith in Swamp-Root that I have never done without it in my family since the wonderful cure of my son as well as myself. I recommend it to all who suffer from kidney or bladder troubles and I am led to believe that it is one of the best medicines for the purpose for which it is used, that has ever been discovered.

This is my experience from the use of Swamp-Root. Wishing the promoters of this wonderful medicine a large sale to the suffering public, I am Yours respectfully,
W. H. McAFEE,

J. L. Murphy, of the Hedgeville section, bought a couple of rows from Jack Spennore last week for $60.

Dan Traylor has sold about 45 acres of the W. H. Traylor farm to William Gooch at $75 and about 40 to Lilburn Gooch at a slightly lower figure. Each of the gentlemen bought the land in order to straighten out their lines, as well as to get possession of more valuable Lincoln county dirt.

Joe Kindig, the mule buyer has been scouring Lincoln for shippers for the southern market. He got 40 yearlings over in the Hubble section last week, half of them from F. F. Fitzpatrick and the rest from James Rankin, of the Marcellus neighborhood. He paid $100 a head for them.

If tobacco in Lincoln turns out on an average as well as present indications seem to point, an exceptionally high-class crop of the weed may be looked for this season. Dick Chandler and J. B. Wade are working 23 acres for Judge W. A. Tribble, out about five miles from Stanford, on the Crab Orchard pike, which is said to be a finer than any other weed in that part of the county. They are cutting it now, and it shows up very well. This is the third year that Judge Tribble has had this tract in tobacco, and many predictions were made that this year's crop would not grade as well as the first two years, but the prophets seem to have been mistaken. Notwithstanding the general opinion of tobacco growers that this ground ought now to be devoted to some other crop for a season or two, Judge Tribble says that he intends to cut right back into the weed again. He will sow the field in crimson clover, just as soon as the present crop is off, and let it run in this soil until it is ready for setting out tobacco plants next spring.

Reports say that Bob Thompson, over in Garrard, has as nice a piece of tobacco on 30 acres of his old farm, as any grower would wish to see. Mr. Thompson sold his farm to Alex Walker, and then rented it for this year for $6,000, and farmers say his tobacco will put him out on that. Then, he has a third interest in 350 acres of corn which Emory Beazley and Henry Heister have in on the place, and a tremendous crop is expected off this.

C. C. Withers, two miles from Stanford off the Danville pike, delivered a bunch of seven shorthorn cattle from E. Dunn, at from 5 1-2 to 6 cents; 9 head of 900-pound cattle from James Bourne at 5 1-2c.

Dogs have played havoc with many a fine flock of sheep in Lincoln this season, and many sheep raisers are becoming thoroughly discouraged. One of the heaviest losers reported is R. T. Bruce, two miles from Stanford, on the Danville pike. Mr. Bruce started the year with a handsome flock of 75 ewes. Then dogs got a total of 53 of these during the season, while his total lamb crop will not go beyond 35. Some tough luck here.

V. A. Lear, of Garrard, has been busy engaged in buying lambs during the past week having made a large shipment to the city market on Saturday. The following being some of his purchases: From John King, 44 head of 68-pound lambs at 5 cents; from Thomas Hendren, 40 65-pound lambs at 6 cents; from Square Parsons, 35 70-pound lambs at 6 cents; from George Robinson, 35 70-pound lambs at $5.35 per hundred; from Captain T. A. Elkin 20 70-pound lambs at 5 cents.

John Dunaway, four miles from town on the Crab Orchard pike, has a fine mare with blood poisoning as a result of stepping on a nail with one of her hind feet. Dr. John Cook the veterinary is treating her. The mare by the great sire, Ashland Brook, and is too good a one to lose. C. E. Tate also has a big brood mare suffering from a hole in one of her hind legs, caused by an accident of some kind.

Buyers are on the lookout for mules of all kinds in Lincoln. Mule men everywhere agree that the prices this season are going to be higher than for some time. One of the chief reasons assigned for this is because of the excessively large number of mule foals that were shipped by the mares during the spring throughout all this section. A buyer from Tennessee last week bought a nice pair of two and three-year-old mare mules from Dave Lynn, five miles from town on the Crab Orchard pike, paying Mr. Lynn $450 for them. J. W. Williams sold to Fitzgerald, of Danville, a pair of yearling horse mules for $250.

Mr. Jones was in Burdette early in the week and purchased a car-load of 600-pound heifers from J. D. Flynn, at $4 a hundred. He shipped them direct to Cincinnati from there.

A wagon load of the finest apples seen in Stanford in many a day was brought in by Hermann Wuebbels, a prominent German farmer, of the Ottenheim section. He wholesaled them to Fields Bros., who sold them at 60 cents a bushel like hot cakes. An average apple weighed 14 ounces and they were firm and solid as a ball. These apples are supposed to be English Pippins. Mr. Wuebbels said he did not know what kind of trees they were raised from. He has about a dozen of these trees, which are just two years old and just beginning to bear. This has been a splendid fruit season for Lincoln trees being loaded down in all parts of the county.

HIGH COMPLIMENT

Paid a Lincoln County Horseman By Leading Farm Paper

The Farmers' Home Journal last week pays high compliment to R. S. Sandler, of McKinney, this county in connection with account of the great show his horses are making at the fairs. The article says:

Dick Sandler is a real live wire in the horse business. He has just sold a bunch of horses which is, perhaps, the largest and highest priced bunch of horses sold by one individual in a long time. He sold the entire bunch consisting of about ten head, to W. C. Massie, of Paris, Ky.

All of these horses are bred according to Dick's idea, being either by Rex Peavine or Dick's splendid stallion, All Peavine and out of mares by Chester Dare. This idea of breeding is certainly right, as there is no cross in the world that can beat the Chester Dare and Rex Peavine cross.

Horses bred this way are the ones which have been winning for the past few years and are winning now.

The horse which is bred most fashionably along these lines is the colt, Imperator, out of Edna Mae and by Kentucky's Choice and by the way, don't think Dick let this youngster escape his notice, for he offered the highest price for him that has been offered for a suckling in many a day.

One of the best ones that Dick sold was the fine yearling stallion, The Aristocrat, by All Peavine and out of Emma White. This colt won part of the futurity money at Lexington last year and is looked upon as one of the strongest candidates for the yearling division this year.

He also sold Emma White and her fine filly, which is a full sister to the Aristocrat. This colt is a very fine one.

Katherine Hughesly was the most noted thing he disposed of. This is one of the most noted brood mares in the state, as she is the dam of the two show horse celebrities, Jacqueline and Star Peavine. Katherine Hughesly is by Chester Dare and has a very fine suckling filly by Rex Peavine, as are Jacqueline and All Peavine, which just goes to show that Dick's idea of the Chester Dare and Rex Peavine cross is the thing.

Another good one which he sold was the yearling filly, Irene McBride by Rex Peavine and out of a mare by Chester Dare. He also sold a brother to Hazel Down and other good ones which I will not mention.

This is an excellent bunch of horses and in the hands of Bob Stronshire, who will handle them for Mr. Massie, should develop into some fine show specimens.

A Fourteen-Year-Old Bride

One of the youngest girls to be married in this county in a long time was Miss Maud Adams, of Garrard, who was married to Joseph Turner, of the same section by Rev. J. G. Livingston, at the home of Joe Coleman, in the Ottenheim section, this week. The young lady's age was just 14 years. She had written consent from her parents for the marriage, else County Clerk Cooper would not have issued the license.
